

LIVING AS A CHAMPION

Becoming a champion does not happen quickly or easily, it takes a lot of strict training over a long period of time, it takes discipline.

There is “a way” of running the race so as to get the prize.

Do not run aimlessly, stay focused on the prize, there are no shortcuts.

Three points:

1. We need to be disciplined in our devotional life.

Your devotional life is your time that is dedicated to God

If you want to be a champ, you need to hang out with a champ.

No student is wiser than his master, must have a great instructor.

We can spend time with God every day.

Spend time in Gods Word, prayer and worship.

Use a life journal.

Plan your time.

2. We must stay committed to serving the Lord and serving others.

We are part of a team, every person's job is important.

Winning is not a sometime thing, it's an all the time thing.

Winning is a habit, but losing is also a habit.

You have to give it everything you've got.

In discipline there is joy, in commitment there is joy.

You must have a championship mentality.

3. We must sacrifice.

To sacrifice, you have to pay a price.

Jesus made the ultimate sacrifice for us, but it is not so that we don't have to.

There are sacrifices that need to be made.
