

WHAT DO YOU TREASURE?

What do you treasure?

What do you think about in your free time?

What do you spend your free time doing?

Is it stuff, is it money, control, safety, security, pleasure, fun, or comfort?

If you say to yourself that you treasure God and family, then when you have free time, do you spend it with God and family?

In your free time do you think about God and your family?

Does your money go toward God and family?

True treasures are not what the world thinks they are.

True treasures are relationships, relationship with God and relationships with others.

It is so easy to get off track, one example is spending too much time providing for our family instead of spending time with our family.

We can be off track or off target and not be aware of it.

Sometimes, instead of just tackling things, we need to stop and spend time with the Lord and get instruction from the Lord on how to do things.

Three ways to actively prioritize God and others:

1. Actively get to know them.

To have a relationship with anyone you have to get to know them

With God, that means spending time in His Word (the Bible).

Another way is coming to church and hearing God's Word preached.

We need to want to get to know them.

2. Invest time with them.

If you really want to do something, you make the time for it.

Praise and worship is a great way to spend time with God.

Another way is to spend time in the life journal and God's Word.

Jesus spent time with his disciples.

If your not spending time with someone, they are not really important to you.

3. Relationships need forgiveness.

God never does anything wrong that he needs forgiven, yet we need to forgive him in our hearts for what we think he is doing sometimes.

With others, forgiveness it is always needed, sooner or later.
