

HONORING MOTHERS

Consider your mother's words.

God gives wise and sound advice through mothers.

Don't chase after pleasures.

Use the position that God has given you to do well unto the weak and to do what is right.

All of us have a position; a position as a father, mother, son, daughter, grandmother or grandfather, etc.

Mothers have a platform to speak into their children's lives at any age.

Mothers are given by God to help shape us into the men and women that God has destined us to be.

Four characteristics of a proverbs 31 woman:

1. Hard working.
2. Giving.
3. Wisdom.
4. Preparedness.

True beauty is not external only.

True wisdom and true beauty begins with the fear of the Lord.

If you feel like you don't measure up right now, remember that God's not done with you yet.

Don't pursue character qualities, pursue the Lord.

Fear the Lord and honor him and he will put those character qualities in you.

It's not about trying harder or striving to be better.

None of us is perfect.
