

GLORIOUS HUMILITY

It is so easy to get caught up in the moment and get off track.

So easy to forget to have an attitude of gratitude or to get focused on the material things of Christmas instead of what Christmas should be about.

The Christmas season is a time of revealing, a time of unveiling.

From the opening of gifts to unveiling the mysterious goodness of God.

The Christmas story is the beginning of the message of the gospel.

God does big things through lowly things.

To walk in god's favor, we must choose to walk in humility.

1. We need to be a servant (like Jesus).

Jesus washed his disciples' feet, those who would follow him and those who would betray him.

How good are we at serving those who are undeserving?

Don't worry about whether someone deserves it or not.

Jesus set aside His title and position in order to serve.

Is there something you need to set aside in order to serve?

A title, a position, an attitude, an offense, your rights?

God makes great those who are humble.

2. Die to self.

Self is the most difficult person to kill.

Self is ruthless, self is thoughtless, self wants to feel good and look good.
